

to reach agreement on the amount of any disgorgement, and the parties have continued working together to facilitate the exchange of documents and information related to the HIPF. See Texas I, ECF No. 136. Further, “[i]n the event the parties fail to resolve their differences by” June 7, 2019, if those differences concern factual issues, the Court has set the matter for a bench trial on June 12, 2019, or, if those differences concern legal issues, the parties will propose a briefing schedule. See Texas I, ECF Nos. 136 & 141.

3. Once the amount of any disgorgement has been established, either by agreement of the parties or by the Court, the Court will be in a position to enter final judgment in Texas I, at which time the parties expect to proceed with appeals in that case.

4. The parties respectfully submit that, in light of the expected entry of final judgment in Texas I in June 2019 or soon thereafter following a bench trial or briefing, the Court ought to maintain the stay in this case.

5. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Court maintain the stay in this case and order them to file a joint status report on or before August 19, 2019, as to whether this case should remain stayed.

6. Counsel for Plaintiffs authorized Defendants to state that Defendants are filing this status report on behalf of all parties.

Respectfully submitted this the 20th day of May, 2019.
