ORDER

On May 12, 2020, the parties filed a joint status report. The Court has considered both positions. The parties shall file a joint status report within 45 days from the date of this Order. In the event the Plaintiff wishes to refine or update its claim for damages, whether through formal amendment of its compliant or through less formal means, Plaintiff shall do so within 45 days as well. The government's response is stayed until after the status report is due. The Court will set the Government's response time, if necessary, after the joint status report is filed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
