This consolidated appeal concerns a preliminary injunction that issued on August 24, 2022. On September 28, 2023, a motions panel of this Court granted the Idaho Legislature's motion for a stay pending appeal; on October 10, the Court ordered that the matter be reheard en banc and vacated the stay. No. 23-35440, Dkt. 69.

After waiting nearly a year to seek a stay, the Legislature now requests an expedited en banc decision on its stay motion by November 15. Dkt. 71. In seeking expedited review, the Legislature repeats its arguments regarding the stay factors articulated in Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 434 (2009).

The United States takes no position on the timing of an en banc decision and does not object to expedited treatment of the Legislature's motion for a stay pending appeal. The government, however, disputes the Legislature's renewed assertions of irreparable harm and entitlement to interim relief. As explained in our briefs in the underlying appeal (Dkt. 35) and concerning the Legislature's stay request (Dkts. 33, 53, 65-2), the Legislature cannot make any of the showings that Nken requires. The motion for a stay pending appeal should be denied.
